Week 8 (19–23 October 2026)

Subject: Performing Arts 2 Unit Title: Unit 1: Actor's Guild: Styles, Techniques and Methods Grade: 10

Lessons	Learning targets	Assessment tools and strategies Formative/ Summative/ Differentiation	Resources and links for Parents
Lesson 1 Launching the National Day Performance: "Family: The Heart of the UAE"	I can generate and develop ideas for an original short performance that communicates a meaningful message about family values in the UAE.	3.3 Guide processing with explicit steps, chunking, and interactive models. 7.1 Increase engagement by offering choices and autonomy. 8.3 Foster collaboration and community with structured group roles and supports. • Formative Assessment: • Introduction to the performance task • Explore the three scenarios • Group brainstorming • Select/receive scenario and acting approach • Develop the main message	All resources and instructions will be shared on Teams/Toddle.
Lesson 2 From Idea to Story: Developing the Scene	I can organise my group's ideas into a clear storyline with characters, conflict, message, and an appropriate acting approach.	2.1 Clarify vocabulary and symbols using visuals, connections, and supports. 3.3 Guide processing with explicit steps, chunking, and interactive models. 8.3 Foster collaboration and community with structured group roles and supports. Formative Assessment: • Story planning • Character development • Beginning–middle– end structure • Identify conflict and resolution • Select Stanislavski/Dramatic Theatre or Brecht/Epic Theatre techniques

Lesson 3 Script Development Workshop	I can collaborate with my group to create a first draft of an original 3–5 minute script and apply appropriate acting techniques to communicate our message.	3.3 Guide processing with explicit steps, chunking, and interactive models. 5.2 Use multiple tools for composition (spellcheckers, manipulatives, templates). 8.4 Provide mastery-oriented feedback that emphasizes growth and improvement. Formative Assessment: • Script/scene outline • Dialogue development • Role assignment • Acting-method application • Teacher feedback on first draft
Homework	Lesson 1: Develop at least two ideas that could strengthen your group's storyline and Family Year message. Lesson 2: Develop your character and prepare ideas for dialogue and action. Lesson 3: Complete/refine the first draft of the group script.	6.1 Guide goal-setting with prompts, examples, and checklists. 9.3 Develop self-assessment and self-reflection with tools, charts, and feedback displays. Choose an item.

Teacher's notes/ Reminders	• Introduce the main performance concept: "Family: The Heart of the UAE." • Assign/confirm the three scenarios: The Family Majlis – Then and Now; One Empty Chair; When One of Us Falls, We All Stand. • Keep performances approximately 3–5 minutes. • Ensure each group communicates a clear message connected to family values in the UAE. • Guide students to apply their previous learning about Stanislavski/Dramatic Theatre and Brecht/Epic Theatre. • Support students in developing original scripts rather than immediately focusing on performance. • Check that all group members have clear roles and responsibilities. • Provide feedback on storyline, character, message, and first script draft.

Technology Integration	PowerPoint / visual prompts Microsoft Teams / Toddle Digital scriptwriting tools Short video examples where appropriate
Cross-curricular links	Language & Literature: Scriptwriting, dialogue, character development, narrative structure, and communication. Social Studies: UAE family values, heritage, identity, and connections between generations. Personal & Social Development: Family relationships, responsibility, empathy, collaboration, and communication.
External Assessment Integration
Wellbeing/ ATL Skills	ATL Skills: • Communication • Collaboration • Self-management • Creative Thinking • Critical Thinking • Social Skills Wellbeing:

	• Building positive relationships • Developing empathy and respect • Safe and supportive creative collaboration • Strengthening confidence and sense of belonging
Standards	Standards (MYP Arts Criteria) Standards (MYP Arts Criteria) Criterion A – Investigating: Apply understanding of acting methods and theatre approaches to inform performance choices. Criterion B – Developing: Practically explore ideas and develop an artistic intention for the Family Year performance. Criterion C – Creating/Performing: Develop original ideas, characters, dialogue, and performance choices for the scene. Criterion D – Evaluating: Reflect on developing ideas and respond to teacher and peer feedback.
Inquiry/ TOK Question	• How can theatre communicate the importance of family values? • How can acting techniques change the way an audience understands a message? • How can a traditional value be communicated to a contemporary audience? • How can different perspectives within a family create meaningful drama?
Success Criteria (Measurable)	Success Criteria (MUST / SHOULD / COULD) MUST (DOK 1–2): • Identify the main message of the assigned Family Year scenario. • Develop clear characters, setting, and storyline. • Contribute actively and respectfully to the group's creative process.

	SHOULD (DOK 3): • Develop a structured beginning, middle, conflict, and resolution. • Apply appropriate features of Stanislavski/Dramatic Theatre or Brecht/Epic Theatre. • Develop a clear first draft/scene outline for a 3–5 minute performance. COULD (DOK 4): • Make purposeful artistic choices that strengthen the Family Year message. • Explain how the chosen acting approach will influence the audience's understanding. • Creatively connect UAE family values, heritage, and contemporary life within the performance.
National Identity Domain	Culture & Values Students explore UAE family values, heritage, respect for elders, responsibility, unity, and intergenerational connection through original theatre-making, strengthening their understanding of national identity and the role of family in UAE society.