Lesson 17: Freedom & Identity – Socratic Seminar الحصة السابعة عشرة	I can evaluate (DOK 3) multiple perspectives on freedom and identity across historical and literary texts through discussion. MUST: Contribute at least 2 substantive comments referencing textual evidence. SHOULD: Build on a peer's idea using a discussion stem. COULD: Bring an outside text or current-event connection to enrich the seminar.	6.3 Facilitate organization with graphic organizers, prompts, and note-taking guides. 5.2 Use multiple tools for composition (spellcheckers, manipulatives, templates). 8.3 Foster collaboration and community with structured group roles and supports.	Key texts: Constitution of the Iroquois Nations, Declaration of Independence, “The Story of an Hour,” “The Last Leaf,” “At the Foot of the Gallows” (synthesis). Family talking point: ask which text's view of freedom your child most agrees with, and why.
Lesson 18: Comparing Perspectives Across Fiction Texts الحصة الثامنة عشرة	I can compare and evaluate (DOK 3) portrayals of independence across the unit's three core fiction texts. MUST: Complete a 3-text comparison matrix with 1 piece of evidence per text. SHOULD: Write a synthesis statement. COULD: Add a fourth, self-selected text to the comparison. GRASPS CHECKPOINT 3: Using the comparison matrix, draft 5 open-ended interview questions that explore how your interviewee has experienced independence (10 min).	3.2 Highlight big ideas, patterns, and critical features using organizers and examples. 8.2 Vary challenge level with differentiated tools, resources, and difficulty. 6.3 Facilitate organization with graphic organizers, prompts, and note-taking guides.	Key texts: “The Story of an Hour,” “The Last Leaf,” “At the Foot of the Gallows.” Family talking point: “Which character in these three stories showed the most independence?”
Lesson 19: Literary Analysis Essay Workshop – Thesis Development الحصة التاسعة عشرة	I can write (DOK 3) a clear, evidence-based thesis statement for a literary analysis essay. MUST: Choose a text and theme. SHOULD: Draft a thesis with a clear claim and roadmap. COULD: Draft 2 alternative thesis angles and select the strongest.	6.2 Support planning with templates, strategy prompts, and modeled thinking. 5.2 Use multiple tools for composition (spellcheckers, manipulatives, templates). 8.2 Vary challenge level with differentiated tools, resources, and difficulty.	Key text: student-selected fiction text from the unit. Family talking point: a strong thesis is like a strong opening line — ask your child to read theirs aloud.

Lesson 20: Literary Analysis Essay – Body Paragraph Drafting الحصة العشرون	I can produce (DOK 3) a coherent body paragraph using the claim-evidence-analysis (CEA) structure. MUST: Write 1 body paragraph with a topic sentence, textual evidence, and analysis. SHOULD: Use at least 1 transition word to connect evidence to analysis. COULD: Draft a second body paragraph addressing a counterclaim.	6.2 Support planning with templates, strategy prompts, and modeled thinking. 5.2 Use multiple tools for composition (spellcheckers, manipulatives, templates). 3.3 Guide processing with explicit steps, chunking, and interactive models.	Key text: student-selected fiction text (cont.). Family talking point: ask your child to read their draft paragraph aloud at home.
Homework الواجبات	Mon (L17): Write 2–3 sentences on one peer idea from the seminar that challenged or extended your view of freedom. Tue (L18): Complete any unfinished rows of the 3-text comparison matrix; finish drafting your 5 GRASPS interview questions. Wed (L19): Revise the thesis statement based on teacher feedback; choose 2 pieces of evidence. Thu (L20): Finish the body paragraph draft ahead of peer review.	6.2 Support planning with templates, strategy prompts, and modeled thinking. 6.4 Support progress monitoring with rubrics, checklists, and visual progress tools. 2.3 Support decoding of text and notation using tools, audio, and multiple representations.	Digital/printed copies of all fiction texts studied so far are available on the class portal for home review.
Teacher's notes/ Reminders ملاحظات المعلم والتذكير	Unit 1 runs at 4 lessons per week (36 lessons, ending 20 November), with one full week per core fiction text: "The Story of an Hour" (Week 4), "The Last Leaf" (Week 5), and "At the Foot of the Gallows" (Week 6). L16 and L36 are catch-up lessons. Lessons 17–20 follow the three text weeks (Weeks 4–6); Week 7 (12–16 October) was a school holiday. The Socratic Seminar (L17) doubles as a post-holiday re-entry across all unit texts. No formal formative is due this week; Formative 3 (Literary Analysis Essay) is due in Lesson 21 (Monday, Week 9). GRASPS Checkpoint 3 (L18): draft interview questions are collected and checked for open-ended wording and respectful framing before Week 9.
