Week 9 (26–30 October 2026)

Subject: Performing Arts 2 Unit Title: Unit 1: Actor's Guild: Styles, Techniques and Methods Grade: 10

Lessons	Learning targets	Assessment tools and strategies Formative/ Summative/ Differentiation	Resources and links for Parents
Lesson 1 Investigating and Organizing the Scene	I can investigate UAE family values and select an appropriate acting approach to develop a clear storyline for our original performance.	2.1 Clarify vocabulary and symbols using visuals, connections, and supports. 3.3 Guide processing with explicit steps, chunking, and interactive models. 8.3 Foster collaboration and community with structured group roles and supports. • Formative Assessment: – Criterion A: Students research their chosen family theme, review Stanislavski and Brecht techniques, critique a relevant performance example, and justify their selected approach. • - Criterion B: Groups finalize their message, characters, setting, conflict, and dramatic structure. Teacher checks progress using the checklist.	Acting-method comparison table, UAE family-values resources, dramatic structure diagram, progress checklist, Teams/Toddle.
Lesson 2 Scriptwriting and Artistic Intention	I can collaborate with my group to develop an original 3–5-minute script that follows dramatic structure and applies our selected acting techniques.	3.3 Guide processing with explicit steps, chunking, and interactive models. 5.2 Use multiple tools for composition (spellcheckers, manipulatives, templates).

		8.4 Provide mastery-oriented feedback that emphasizes growth and improvement. Formative Assessment: – Criterion B: Groups develop dialogue, stage directions, character objectives, and theatrical techniques. Students explain their artistic intention and how their scene communicates family values. Teacher provides feedback on the first draft.
Lesson 3 Script Refinement and Initial Read-Through	I can evaluate and refine our group script using feedback and demonstrate how our chosen acting techniques support the intended message.	7.1 Increase engagement by offering choices and autonomy. 8.3 Foster collaboration and community with structured group roles and supports. 9.3 Develop self-assessment and self-reflection with tools, charts, and feedback displays. Formative Assessment: A & B: Groups conduct a table read, review dialogue and dramatic progression, check the application of their acting approach, and refine their scripts. Students complete the progress checklist and prepare their formative documents for submission.

Homework	Lesson 1: Complete research on the selected UAE family value and prepare a short justification for the chosen acting approach. Lesson 2: Complete assigned scriptwriting sections and review dialogue and stage directions. Lesson 3: Finalize the group planning document and revised script for formative submission.	6.1 Guide goal-setting with prompts, examples, and checklists. 9.3 Develop self-assessment and self-reflection with tools, charts, and feedback displays. Choose an item.
Teacher's notes/ Reminders	• Continue the Family Year performance project: "Family: The Heart of the UAE." • Ensure students demonstrate meaningful investigation for Criterion A, including a brief critique of a performance example. • Check that each group has selected one acting approach: Stanislavski's System or Brecht's Epic Theatre. • Ensure scripts follow the dramatic structure and communicate a meaningful message about the importance of family in UAE society. • Support students in completing their original 3–5-minute scripts. • Use the printable checklist to monitor group progress. • Provide feedback before formative submission. • Prepare groups for the dedicated rehearsal block in the following stage.

Technology Integration	• Microsoft Teams / Toddle for resources and submission. • Word / Google Docs for collaborative scriptwriting. • Short performance clips to investigate acting approaches. • Digital planning templates and feedback tools.
Cross-curricular links	Language & Literature: Narrative structure, scriptwriting, dialogue, and character development. Social Studies: UAE family traditions, cultural heritage, and national identity. Moral Education: Respect, responsibility, empathy, family relationships, and community values.
External Assessment Integration
Wellbeing/ ATL Skills	ATL Skills: Research, creative thinking, critical thinking, communication, collaboration, and self-management. Wellbeing: Encouraging respectful teamwork, positive relationships, empathy, confidence, and shared responsibility.
Standards	Standards (MYP Arts Criteria) Criterion A: Investigating

	• A.i: Investigate relevant acting approaches in relation to the statement of inquiry. • A.ii: Critique a performance example from the selected theatrical approach. Criterion B: Developing • B.i: Practically explore ideas to inform the development of the final performance. • B.ii: Present a clear artistic intention for the final performance in line with the statement of inquiry. Colorado Theatre Standards • DT.H1.1.1: Generate and conceptualize artistic ideas. • DT.H1.1.2: Organize and develop artistic ideas. • DT.H1.1.3: Refine and complete artistic work. • DT.H1.2.2: Develop and refine artistic techniques.
Inquiry/ TOK Question	• How can different acting approaches influence an audience's understanding of family values? • How can dramatic structure strengthen the message of a performance? • How can theatre communicate the importance of family in building a strong UAE community?
Success Criteria (Measurable)	Success Criteria (MUST / SHOULD / COULD) MUST (DOK 1–2) • Identify and investigate a family value relevant to UAE society. • Select one acting approach and identify at least two relevant techniques.

	• Develop a storyline with characters, setting, conflict, and resolution. SHOULD (DOK 3) • Justify the selected acting approach using relevant examples. • Develop a structured 3–5-minute script following dramatic structure. • Explain how the chosen techniques communicate the intended family-related message. COULD (DOK 4) • Critically evaluate and refine artistic choices based on feedback. • Integrate theatrical techniques creatively to strengthen the audience's understanding. • Present a coherent artistic intention that connects family values, acting techniques, and audience impact.
National Identity Domain	Culture & Values Students investigate and creatively communicate the importance of family as a foundation of UAE society, highlighting unity, respect for elders, compassion, responsibility, cultural heritage, and intergenerational connections through original theatrical performances.