Lesson 1: الحصة 1 Workshop 1: Plan & Draft Intro	• • I can complete my essay plan with a thesis and an idea for each body paragraph. • I can draft an introduction with a hook, context, and a thesis. • I can strengthen my thesis so it is precise and arguable.	6.2 Support planning with an essay planner template (paragraph, job, model, my plan). 8.1 Make goals clear and visible using the workshop routine (mini-lesson → write → share). Formative: Completed essay plan and drafted introduction, checked with a partner thesis checklist.	Ask your child to read you the "hook" they wrote to open their essay, and the thesis statement that follows it. This week follows a writing workshop routine each day: a short mini-lesson, 30 minutes of quiet writing, then partner sharing — ask your child what they wrote today.
Lesson 2 الحصة الثانية	• I can draft one body paragraph with a claim, a quote, and an explanation (the C-E-A-L structure). • I can draft two body paragraphs and link them with a transition. • I can analyze how word choice creates meaning in at least one quote.	2.2 Clarify structure using the C-E-A-L (Claim, Evidence, Analysis, Link) paragraph frame. 3.2 Model choosing short, relevant evidence and trimming long quotes to key words. Formative: Color-coded paragraph check (claim/evidence/analysis highlighted) with partner feedback.	Ask your child to explain the C-E-A-L structure (Claim, Evidence, Analysis, Link) they are using to build each paragraph of their essay. Have them read you one body paragraph and point out their claim, their quote, and their explanation.
Lesson 3 الحصة الثالثة	• I can write a conclusion that restates my claim in new words. • I can complete a full draft of my essay. • I can give and use peer feedback to plan my revision.	8.4 Increase mastery-oriented feedback through structured peer review questions and frames. 6.2 Support revision planning with a draft-completeness checklist (title, intro, body x3, conclusion). Formative: Full draft completed and peer-reviewed; exit ticket lists three planned revisions.	Ask your child what feedback they received from a classmate, and what three changes they plan to make before the final copy. Encourage them to read their full draft aloud at home — reading aloud often reveals missing words or awkward sentences.

Lesson 4 الحصة الرابعة	• • I can fix capital letters and run-on sentences in my draft. • I can revise at least two paragraphs using feedback and the revision checklist. • I can polish my style and tone and submit a typed final copy.	2.1 Clarify conventions with a guided editing practice (capitals, run-ons, informal tone) and answer key. 8.1 Make expectations clear and visible with the Final Copy Checklist (format, title, name, date, MLA basics). Summative: Typed final critical essay (draft + final copy), scored with the MYP Criteria A–D task-specific rubric.	Ask to see your child's final typed essay — it should be about 500 words, five paragraphs, double-spaced, with their name, class, and date at the top. Celebrate the finished piece! Ask your child to share one thing they learned about writing a critical essay and one thing they are proud of.
