Task 1 – Formative UAE Texture Art: Plan & Experiment	I can work with my group to plan a textured artwork that represents one element of UAE culture.	FORMATIVE • Teams of maximum 4 choose one UAE cultural element. • Research/observe the element and discuss its meaning. • Create a group planning sketch. • Experiment with at least 2 textures/materials before choosing the final approach. Differentiation / UDL: • Choice of UAE element, materials and group role. • Students may contribute through sketching, research, texture testing, construction or organization. • Visual references and teacher modeling provided as needed.	UAE visual references; sketchbook/paper; pencils; cardboard; fabric; paper; yarn/string; recycled/found materials; paint; glue; natural and available art materials.
Task 2 – Summative Collaborative UAE Texture Artwork	I can collaborate with my group to create a textured artwork that communicates UAE culture and identity.	SUMMATIVE • In teams of maximum 4, create one large textured artwork representing one UAE cultural element. • Use recycled materials, art materials, or a combination. • Focus on visible texture, composition, craftsmanship and cultural meaning. • Every student must have a clear role and contribute to the final artwork. Differentiation / UDL: • Choice of materials and techniques. • Roles may include drawing, painting, cutting, construction, texture making, research or presentation.

Homework الواجبات	Bring clean, safe recycled/found materials if needed for your group design.
Teacher's notes/ Reminders ملاحظات المعلم والتذكير	Groups are maximum 4 students. Each student must have a clear role. Students must plan before construction, use tools safely, and clean/return materials after each session.
