Week #: 8 ( 19-23 Oct)

Subject: Theatre
Unit Title: 1: Which Way is Me? Melodrama, Narrative, and Cultural Expression
Grade: 7

| Lessons | Learning targets | Assessment tools and strategiesFormative/ Summative/ Differentiation | Resources and links for Parents |
|---|---|---|---|
| Lesson 1Exploring Cultural Storytelling | • I can identify storytelling elements from different cultures.• I can explain how melodrama exaggerates characters and emotions. | • Teacher observation of discussions.• Group notes on story elements. | |
| Homework | Write a reflection: How does melodrama help us understand stories from different cultures in new ways? | | |
| Teacher's notes/ Reminders | • Encourage respect when working with cultural stories—focus on learning and appreciation.• Remind students melodrama is playful exaggeration, not mockery.• Allow students to choose stories that connect to their identity. | | |

Week #

| | |
|---|---|
| Technology Integration | • Show video clips of classic melodramas or soap operas.• Record student performances for self-assessment. |

| | |
|---|---|
| Cross-curricular links | • Language Arts: Narrative elements (character, plot, conflict). |
| External Assessment Integration | • Builds foundations for performance tasks (characterization, physicality, cultural understanding). |
| Wellbeing/ ATL Skills | • Social skills: Collaboration in groups.• Communication: Expressing exaggerated emotions clearly.• Self-confidence: Performing in front of peers.Respect & empathy: Understanding and valuing diverse cultures |
| Standards | • Standard 1 (Create): Develop dramatic works based on cultural narratives.• Standard 2 (Perform): Use movement/voice to present melodramatic characters.• Standard 3 (Critically Respond): Reflect on how form changes meaning. |
| Inquiry/ TOK Question | • How does the way we tell a story change what it means? |
| Success Criteria (Measurable) | • Success Criteria• MUST (All):• Identify at least two storytelling elements found in different cultures.• Identify the main characteristics of melodrama, including exaggerated characters and emotions.• SHOULD (Most):• Explain how storytelling elements reflect the culture, traditions, or values of different societies.• Explain how melodrama uses exaggerated emotions, gestures, and character traits to communicate meaning.• COULD (Some): |

| | |
|---|---|
| | • Compare storytelling elements from two different cultures and explain how they influence the style of a dramatic performance.• Demonstrate how exaggeration can make a melodramatic character or emotion more engaging for an audience.• |
| National Identity Domain | • Students can adapt Emirati folktales (e.g., “Bu Dabbas,” “Um Al Duwais,” “The Pearl Diver”) into melodramas.• Explore how UAE stories teach values like family, courage, generosity, and respect. |