Week # 9: 26/10/2026 – 30/10/2026

Subject: English Language Arts Unit Title: Testing Our Limits Grade: 6

Lessons	Learning targets	Assessment tools and strategies Formative/ Summative/ Differentiation	Resources and links for Parents
Lesson 1: GRASPS Intro	I can: • identify the goal, role, audience, situation, product, and success criteria of the GRASPS task. • explain how a performance can communicate aspects of Emirati culture. • select a suitable cultural focus for my play.	• Formative: GRASPS task discussion, exit ticket, class questioning. • Differentiation: Teacher-guided unpacking of task requirements; choice of cultural topics for extension.	Unit 1 GRASPS Parents can discuss aspects of Emirati heritage such as hospitality, pearl diving, falconry, traditional crafts, and storytelling traditions.
Lesson 2 GRASPS Planning	I can: • organize my ideas using a planning template. • develop a character connected to an aspect of Emirati culture. • outline a narrative with a clear beginning, middle, and end.	• Formative: Planning organizer, teacher conferencing, peer feedback. • Differentiation: Graphic organizers, sentence starters, extension through additional character development and research.	Encourage your child to discuss their chosen character and cultural focus at home.
Lesson 3 Library	I can: • locate reliable information related to my chosen cultural topic. • record relevant facts and details from research sources. • use research findings to support my storytelling ideas.	• Formative: Research notes check, source collection, teacher observations. • Differentiation: Guided research support, curated resources, additional independent research opportunities.	Students may wish to explore age-appropriate books or reliable cultural resources with family support.
Lesson 4 Field Trip	I can: • describe observations from the field trip experience. • connect field trip learning to my GRASPS performance task. • identify details that may strengthen my character and story.	• Formative: Reflection journal, discussion circles, think-pair-share activities. • Differentiation: Reflection prompts, verbal or written responses, extension through deeper cultural analysis.	Discuss the field trip experience and encourage your child to explain connections to Emirati culture.

Homework	• Continue researching the chosen Emirati cultural topic. • Begin collecting ideas for a meaningful prop and costume that could support the final performance. • Read independently for at least 20 minutes and record new vocabulary related to culture, traditions, or storytelling.
Teacher's notes/ Reminders	• Students are beginning a major performance task that will continue over the coming weeks. • Families are encouraged to have conversations about Emirati culture and traditions to help students develop authentic and respectful representations. • Additional information regarding costumes, props, and performance expectations will be shared as the project progresses.

Technology Integration	Digital research databases and library resources. Collaborative planning documents. Presentation and script-writing tools for planning purposes.
Cross-curricular links	Individuals & Societies: Emirati history, heritage, and cultural traditions. Drama/Theatre: Character development, performance skills, and stage presence. Research Skills: Gathering and organizing information from reliable sources.
External Assessment Integration	Writing organization and structure. Use of evidence and supporting details. Oral communication and presentation skills. Character development and narrative writing.
Wellbeing/ ATL Skills	Communication Skills Expressing ideas clearly and confidently. Research Skills Locating and recording relevant information. Self-Management Skills Planning, organization, and time management.

	Creative Thinking Skills Developing original characters and narratives. Social Skills Giving and receiving constructive peer feedback.
Standards	• CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RL.6.3 – Describe how a particular story's plot unfolds and how characters respond or change as the plot moves toward a resolution. • CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.6.3 – Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequences. • CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.6.4 – Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. • CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.6.7 – Conduct short research projects to answer a question, drawing on several sources and refocusing the inquiry when appropriate. • CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.6.4 – Present claims and findings, sequencing ideas logically and using pertinent descriptions, facts, and details to accentuate main ideas or themes. • CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.6.5 – Include multimedia components and visual displays in presentations to clarify information.
Inquiry/ TOK Question	Factual Question What are some important traditions, values, and cultural practices that shape Emirati identity? Conceptual Question How can storytelling help preserve and communicate culture across generations? Debatable Question Is performance more effective than informational writing for teaching people about a culture?
Success Criteria (Measurable)	MUST – All Students • Identify all elements of the GRASPS task. • Select a cultural focus and complete a planning organizer. • Record at least three relevant research facts from reliable sources. • Create a character profile with basic background information. SHOULD – Most Students • Explain how their chosen cultural element is significant to Emirati heritage. • Develop a clear narrative structure with a beginning, middle, and end.

	• Include at least five researched details that support authenticity. • Make connections between field trip learning and performance planning. COULD – Some Students • Evaluate which details best communicate the chosen cultural message. • Create a detailed character voice that reflects perspective and experience. • Synthesize research, personal reflections, and field trip observations into an engaging performance concept. • Justify choices for props, costume, and storytelling techniques using specific examples.
National Identity Domain	• Value Emirati traditions and customs. • Develop respect for the UAE's cultural heritage. • Understand how stories preserve collective memory and identity. • Become responsible communicators of cultural knowledge. • Celebrate the diversity and richness of Emirati experiences.