Week # 6: 19/10/2026 – 23/10/2026

Subject: English Language Arts Unit Title: Testing Our Limits Grade: 6

Lessons	Learning targets	Assessment tools and strategies Formative/ Summative/ Differentiation	Resources and links for Parents
Lesson 1: MAP Test Completion	I can: • identify the characters, setting, problem, and solution in a fable. • summarize a fable using key details. • determine the moral of a fable.	Formative: annotation, class discussion, exit ticket. UDL: audio/text versions, vocabulary support, visual story maps, partner reading, choice of written or oral response.
Lesson 2 Aesop's Fables: Close Read: Vocabulary in Action	I can: • analyze how events help develop the moral of a fable. • cite evidence from a text to support my ideas. • explain the difference between a moral and a theme.	Formative: text-dependent questions, small-group discussion, evidence tracker. UDL: sentence starters, color-coded annotation, teacher-guided groups, challenge task comparing multiple fables.	Week 6: Aesop's Fables
Lesson 3 Writing about Aesop's Fables	I can: • construct a written response using evidence from the text. • explain how events contribute to the moral of a fable. • organize my ideas clearly using the RACE strategy.	• RACE paragraph. • Peer feedback. • Teacher conferencing. • UDL: Graphic organizers, writing frames, speech-to-text tools, choice of oral rehearsal before writing, extension paragraph comparing two morals.
Lesson 4 Figures of Speech in Context	I can: • identify figures of speech in a text. • interpret the meaning of figurative language. • compare literal and figurative meanings.	Exit ticket. Figurative language matching activity. Class discussion. UDL: Visual examples, collaborative learning, scaffolded examples, challenge task creating original examples.
Homework	• Read one Aesop's fable and identify its moral. • Complete any unfinished RACE writing.

	• Find one example of figurative language in a book, movie, or conversation and explain its meaning.
Teacher's notes/ Reminders	• Complete all MAP testing and reflections. • Continue building annotation and evidence-based discussion skills. • Support struggling readers through guided groups and audio supports. • Extend learning through comparison of morals across texts.

Technology Integration	• StudySync digital text and annotation tools. • Google Classroom. • Audio text support. • Digital graphic organizers and collaborative documents.
Cross-curricular links	• Social Studies: Values and lessons across cultures. • Drama: Oral storytelling and character interpretation. • Wellbeing: Applying morals and positive decision-making to everyday life.
External Assessment Integration	• MAP Reading skills. • Evidence-based responses. • Vocabulary development. • Reading comprehension strategies.
Wellbeing/ ATL Skills	• Communication: Supporting ideas with evidence. • Thinking: Analyzing morals and figurative language. • Self-Management: Goal setting, reflection, perseverance. • Social: Collaboration and respectful discussion.

Standards	RL.6.1: Cite textual evidence to support analysis. RL.6.2: Determine a theme or central idea and summarize the text. RL.6.4: Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text. RL.6.10: Read and comprehend grade-level literary texts. W.6.9: Draw evidence from literary texts to support analysis. SL.6.1: Engage effectively in collaborative discussions. L.6.5: Demonstrate understanding of figurative language.
Inquiry/ TOK Question	Factual: What is the moral of an Aesop's fable? Conceptual: How do authors use language to teach life lessons? Debatable: Are fables still an effective way to teach values today?
Success Criteria (Measurable)	MUST (Remember & Understand) • I can identify the moral, key vocabulary, and one example of figurative language in a fable. SHOULD (Apply & Analyze) • I can use evidence from the text to explain how characters and events help develop the moral. COULD (Evaluate & Create) • I can evaluate the relevance of a fable's moral today and create connections to another text or real-life situation.
National Identity Domain	3.1 Belonging
	• explore how shared values such as honesty, responsibility, perseverance, and respect contribute to a strong community. • Students recognize that stories from different cultures often teach similar life lessons. • Students demonstrate respect for differing perspectives during discussions and collaborative learning.